

Yesser Khaloui

Software developer

Profil

Young and enthusiastic, I am driven by a strong desire to acquire new skills. My ability to easily adapt to different fields is one of my major strengths. Possessing a sociable and dynamic personality, I have the talent to create a positive work environment. My experience as the Vice President of the Dynamic Club at the university attests to my leadership qualities. Passionate about the field of development, I am determined to continue growing and enriching my knowledge in this sector.
